Historic Baton Rouge Architecture

By Jim Fraiser

Photography by Pat Caldwell and Jim Fraiser

Foreword by Marchita Mauck

Tour significant Baton Rouge buildings without leaving home.

Explore the state capital of Louisiana by paging through this wonderful book exhibiting Baton Rouge's grand, historic architecture. The beautiful homes and buildings of the city are exquisitely photographed here, inside and out. Historic residences, such as the Reymond House, and downtown landmarks, such as the old and new state capitol buildings, are also included in this detailed work that will be treasured for years to come.

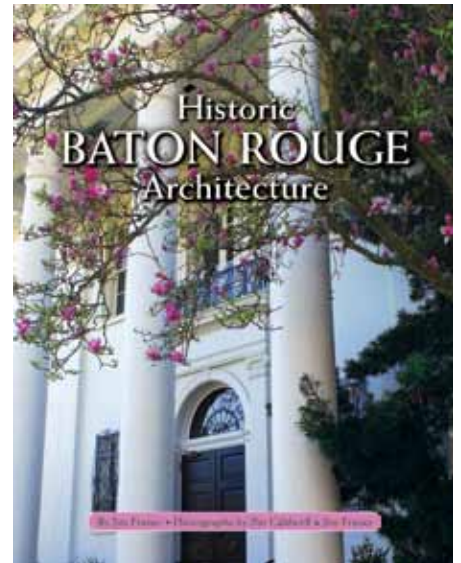

JIM FRAISER is a practicing attorney, a college professor, and a freelance journalist and photographer.

PAT CALDWELL is an avid photographer and enjoys documenting the beautiful buildings of the South.

MARCHITA MAUCK provides an insightful introduction to this architectural delight.
